Additional Agreement on Conditions of Use

Acknowledgement

To acknowledge, in any work based in whole or part on the Data Collections, both the original depositors and the UK Data Archive and to declare, in any such work, that those who carried out the original analysis and collection of the data bear no responsibility for the further analysis or interpretation of it. The suggested form in which copyright should be acknowledged is : "Material from Crown copyright records made available through the Home Office and the UK Data Archive has been used by permission of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office and the Queen's Printer for Scotland".

Publications : Clearance

To submit any report or interpretation of further analysis of data to the Home Office for comment before distribution (e.g. as in presentation to a conference or seminar) or publication. Where a substantial part consists of verbatim transcripts of Crown copyright material, payment of a reproduction fee may be required. Where Acorn codes are present in the data, users must also submit a draft of any report or interpretation of further analysis of data to CACI at: CACI Limited, CACI House, Avonmore Road, London, W14 8TS; for further comment before distribution (e.g. as in presentation to a conference or seminar) or publication. Acorn data are not to be used for profit.

Publications : Deposit

To deposit with the UK Data Archive and with the Home Office a copy of any published work based in whole or part on the Data Collections.

N.B. Users are recommended to contact the Home Office before beginning their research for advice on the suitability of the data for their intended research. Please contact:
